

Sinclair Broadcastin is an example of everything that's wrong about widespread consolidation of media ownership. Their attempt to provide a hugely valuable (and hugely biased) gift to the Bush campaign is a serious challenge to the fairness of the upcoming election. Please don't let them get away with this. Don't let them broadcast the anti-Kerry "documentary"/campaign commercial unless they also agree to broadcast a pro-Kerry equivalent.